

Conference Day
Education for Parish Service, Tooting Bec
Thursday 20 May 2010, 9.30 am to 4 pm
Asylum and Immigration:
Scripture, theology, and Catholic social teaching

An opportunity to consider issues related to Asylum, Immigration and Migration from three perspectives:

1. The scriptural texts that inform Catholic morality on these issues
2. The theology that underlies Catholic social teaching
3. Catholic social teaching and specific practices of asylum and immigration

Speakers:

Dr. Anna Rowlands MA PhD

Dr. Rowlands of the Margaret Beaufort Institute in Cambridge works as a theologian on CAFOD's Theological Reflection Group. Her research is focused on catholic social teaching and practices of Asylum and Immigration.

Rev. Dr Robert Kaggwa BA MA STL STD

Dr. Kaggwa is Chaplain and part-time lecturer in Theology and Religious Studies at Digby Stuart College, Roehampton University. He was part of a team at St. Edmund's College, Cambridge that was commissioned by the Catholic Bishops of London to do research on the needs of migrants 3 years ago.

Dr. Anthony Towey, BSc BA PGCE MA PhD

Dr. Towey is Head of Theology at St. Mary's University College, Twickenham. He is Associate Editor of The Pastoral Review and his public lectures include lectures on Paul and the Gospel of John

Admission: £10 Free to EPS students

For further details and application

Apply: to rebekah@eps-uk.org.uk or tel: 020 8767 4445

EPS is located at the Christian Education Centre, 21 Tooting Bec Road, London SW17 8BS, right by Tooting Bec underground station