Hymns

"Who do you say I am?"

Mark 8:29

Tune: Personent Hodie (also known as Theodoric).

1. Peter spoke, proud and true - did the best he could do - told them all what he knew:
'This is God's anointed, heavenly appointed!'
Gave a name, name, name, to explain, plain, plain Would his call say it all, need no further story?
2. Jesus then made it clear how much more we must hear if we'd let him come near -
we must learn his story,
cross and death and glory;
feel his pain, pain, pain, then his reign, reign, reign.
If we'd see who he'd be
we must learn his story!
3. Others met on life's road, watched and feared or ignored, quickly named and deplored often classed as 'other', rarely sister, brother.
4. Must we name, name, name, just to shame, shame, shame;
pigeon hole ev'ry soul,
never learn their story?
5. Jesu's life ev'ry day touched the lives on his way, let them all have their say - outcasts with their dangers, foreigners and strangers - let them share, share, share, from their care, care, care,
till he knew what to do, learning from their stories.
5. Still today, we may meet, name and leave incomplete or, like Jesus, may greet, listening to others,
finding sisters, brothers.
Help us know, know, know how to grow, grow, grow as we face and embrace; merging all our stories.
