

Many yet one are the gifts of God's people

Words: Lindsey Sanderson
 Legato, flowing

Music: Susan Heafield
 Tune: SANDERSON

G Em

Ma-ny yet one are the gifts of God's peo-ple,
 Ta-lents and skills have been gi-ven for ser-vice,
 Sing-ing and bak-ing, ac-count-ing and teach-ing,
 Peo-ple so va-ried, yet one in our pur-pose,

C D D7

sum-moned and chal-lenged to love and de-clare shar-ing with o-thers that God may be known,
 friend-ship and com-fort and mend-ing the roof,
 com-ing to-geth-er as one fa-mi-ly,

G Em

wit-ness to God, who is love ne-ver end-ing, gifts gi-ven free-ly and wil-ling-ly of-fered,
 vi-si-ting, preach-ing, em-power-ing, or pray-ing,
 shar-ing the Gos-pel, en-a-bling each o-ther,

C D G

work for God's king-dom of jus-tice and peace.
 blessed by the Spi-rit whose pre-sence is near.
 such are the gifts which we of-fer to God.
 this is our goal and the source of our hope.

Chorus

C G

All who have faith ... shall share in God's mis-sion,

Em D

tra-vel-ling peo-ple who dream and in-spire,

shar-ing our lives ... with those we en-count-er,

Em C D D7 G

of-fer-ing hope, as we jour-ney with God.
