

AJAR

Asylum Justice & Release

You are invited to our next

Team building and training session

On Sunday April 28th 12.30-4pm

At All Hallows Church, Regent Terrace, LS6 1NP

Directions from www.allhallowsleeds.org.uk

The event is for all current volunteers and anyone interested in finding out more about the work of AJAR, and will include:

Exploring how we can work more effectively within small teams supporting people in detention or close to being taken into detention

Presentation on housing when people are destitute by Laurie from PAFRAS

Opportunity to ask difficult questions

Discussion of further developments AJAR involved with, including signing on project, the AJAR card and prevention of detention

Opportunity to get to know each other better and support one another in this very challenging but worthwhile work

All are welcome of any faith or none. Lunch included, but please let us know if you are coming and also if you can bring any food to share. Contact us on ajarleeds@gmail.com or 07538 758513. <https://sites.google.com/site/asylumjusticeandrelease>
