

Do you have experience in community development?

Do you think you could enable local communities to meet and work together across faiths?

Does it appeal to you to work in the Black Country with its rich local culture and “can do” attitude?

In that case this job might be for you.

Black Country Near Neighbours (BCNN) Co-ordinator

£28,000 per year

The area covered by this project will be the City of Wolverhampton and the Metropolitan Boroughs of Dudley, Sandwell and Walsall. Near Neighbours is a national scheme funded by the Department of Communities and Local Government which has now expanded due to the success of the first phase. It works at a local level to bring people of different faiths together, to build relationships, and to encourage civic engagement. There are some small grants available to assist with this.

The funding for this fulltime post runs until March 31st 2016 (in the first instance), during which the co-ordinator will be employed by a joint venture between the Churches Urban Fund and the Diocese of Lichfield, Transforming Communities Together.

For more information please contact Rev John Barnett, john.barnett@lichfield.anglican.org 07967 166931, and, from Wed 9 April, 0121 605 8519, 88 Hillingford Avenue, Great Barr, BIRMINGHAM B43 7HN

The closing date for applications is Friday 9th May 2014
